

2022 IMPACT REPORT

Thank you for paying it forward.

"In the early onset of becoming a single parent, I struggled financially. Before the first Christmas by myself, with two young daughters, I received an envelope in the mail addressed to me 'from Santa Claus, North Pole.' Inside were gift cards totaling $250 taped to a single sheet of Christmas paper. The difference this gift made for my family that year was incredible!

The sender clearly wanted to remain anonymous. I continued to receive this anonymous gift in various amounts, to purchase groceries and toys, for many years. Despite asking family and friends, I never did find out who brought so much joy to our Christmas holiday.

I always knew that one day I would pay that act of kindness and generosity forward. When I connected with Schuylkill United Way and learned more about the many services offered through their partner agencies, I decided that this was one way I could pay it forward."

RESPONDING TO THE NEEDS

AROUND THE COUNTY

HOPE & COFFEE

Hope & Coffee is a fun spot for coffee in Tamaqua and a tremendous resource for the recovery community.

Because of your generosity, SUW was able to give $5,000 for a virtual meeting room that allowed group meetings to continue during the pandemic.

HELPING HARVEST

Your donations aided Helping Harvest with $5,000 to fight food insecurity in Schuylkill County.

What does Helping Harvest look like in our county?

Senior Food Box Program* - 340 seniors receive a food box each month at 37 senior housing locations

Food Banks, Pantries, Shelters* - 31 of these agencies receive food regularly from Helping Harvest

Weekender Program* - 12 schools send food home with students to ensure they eat over the weekend

Mobile Market* - Hubs for families and individuals to receive food in Auburn, Girardville, Mahanoy City, Minersville, Pottsville, Shenandoah, & Tamaqua

ST. LUKE'S MINERS CAMPUS COMMUNITY HEALTH PROGRAM

$10,000 was awarded to St. Luke's Miners Campus Community Health Program to assist the Tamaqua area with food, clothing, hygiene products, vision assistance, and community events. The overwhelming majority of people served were children.

THE TREE

The calm quiet strength of a tree

Reaching high in the sky

Full of life from its roots

To the tiniest branch

And oh, how it comforts me

How it teaches me

Without a sound

Showing anyone near

All the secrets of time

The calm quiet strength of a tree
